

Small Animal Nurse - North Yorkshire

This is an increasingly unique practice which is fully committed to independent ownership providing us with the flexibility to deliver the high standard of patient and client care that we want to, each and every day.

Our practice values are Clinical excellence, Adaptability, Respect and Education.

We have a full-time position available in our small animal department, which is based at our RCVS Hospital, ISFM Cat Friendly clinic in Ripon. Applications are welcome from all levels of experience, though this position would be particularly well-suited to a final year veterinary nursing student. The role involves all aspects of veterinary nursing (surgical, medical and practice nursing) and includes an equal share of weekend and OOH duties.

We have an amazing team of 15 FTE nurses, supporting our 14 small animal vets. We have a wealth of existing experience in the team, including certificate-holders in medical nursing, surgery and nutrition. Our vets include Advanced Practitioners in medicine, surgery, dermatology, ophthalmology and general practice. We encourage and fund personal development and want to help you grow and deliver your expanding skillset. The practice is well-equipped with digital x-ray, video endoscopy, fully integrated internal lab facilities, visiting MRI and CT scanners and separate dog, cat and isolation facilities.

From the semi-rural, cathedral city of Ripon, both the Yorkshire Dales and North York Moors national parks are on the immediate doorstep. Ripon is well-serviced in all departments, but specifically with an excellent choice of schools. We have a loyal and expanding client base who are largely insured and want to form lasting bonds, making for a rewarding professional relationship.
